"Hi," she said, carefully. Squatters weren't her job. Trask had someone else to handle unlawful inhabitants. Most of the ones she'd met on her rounds were harmless, down on their luck and hiding from the rain. But anybody could get ugly, when they thought their home was threatened. Agnes held up an orange.

House, Ghosts, An Enemy of the People and The Wild Duck, Ibsen created stage characters that undermined the certainty of society. For this reason, while many of his plays scandalised the public and were subsequently banned across Europe, he became a major influence for both the symbolic and the realistic streams of twentieth century drama.

The NIGHT the GHOST GOT IN Plain fact is, the house I used to live in often assumed the strange cloaks of fantasy. There actually was a ghost (families in the house before we moved in, we learned later, had heard the walking around and the step on the stair). There also actually was a guinea pig that slept on a zither.
