It has nothing to do with age. Its about being awake. If your still in the "game", you will play along, again and again. Until you reach a certain age, 48 mostly, then you start to wake up, and you either keep bitter about that you love fairy tale will not come true, at least not here in this place, at this time.

The above is a nice way of saying the following: if women were judged by how they judge men, they'd be losers. Put a dick on just about any woman you know and watch her instantly transform into a loser, one who is addicted to social media, overpriced restaurants, toxic entertainment, and endless validation from strangers.
