Guilt is a cognitive or an emotional experience that occurs when a person believes or realizes "accurately or not" that they have compromised their own standards of conduct or have violated a universal moral standard and bear significant responsibility for that violation. Guilt is closely related to the concept of remorse

War is a state of armed conflict between states, governments, societies and informal paramilitary groups, such as mercenaries, insurgents and militias. It is generally characterized by extreme violence, aggression, destruction, and mortality, using regular or irregular military forces. Warfare refers to the common activities and characteristics of types of war, or of wars in general.

Evaluate your marriage. The Marital Friendship and the Self-Giving Checklist. The marital friendship and marital happiness are dependent upon the ability of spouses to give themselves in a trusting manner to each other, to their children, to work, to the care of the home, to relatives and friends and, in Christian marriages, to God and to receive also.

This question is one I hear so many times. People write to me and say "I have done the research, and apparently narcissists don't change. But can a narcissist heal? How can he / she change?" This was a question, once upon a time I agonised over myself. With the first narcissistic abuse experience I was so deluded into believing I still loved him, and we were truly meant to be together.

When we talk about becoming a "peacebuilder," we don't mean becoming some kind of passive daydreamer. We are talking about empowering yourself to become an embodiment of the awakened presence of peace, a protector of the innocent, and a heart-based "warrior" of genuine love, truth and justice for one and all.. We all know world peace starts with inner peace.
